Koorrefrein: (N.B.: vloeiend doorzingen, niet "stotend")

And it's all for me grog, me jolly, jolly, grog,
All for me beer and tobacco.
Well I've spent all me tin, with the ladies drinking gin,
For across the western ocean I must wander.

1. *Well I'm sick in the head, (and) I haven't been to bed,
Since first I came ashore with me plunder,
I've seen centipedes and snakes, me head is gone of aches,
And I think I'll take a part for way of yonder!*

2. *Where are me boots, me noggin', noggin' boots,
They're all sold for beer and tobacco,
The soles they were thin, and the uppers let me in,
and the heels are looking out for better weather!*

3. *Where is me shirt, me noggin', noggin' shirt,
It's all sold for beer and tobacco,
The sleeves are gone worn out, (and) the collar torn about,
and the rest is looking out for better weather!*

4. *Where is me wife, me noggin', noggin' wife,
She's all sold for beer and tobacco,
You see, her front has gone worn out, and her tail got kicked about,
and I say she's looking out for better weather!*
