

THE LUNENBURGER SAILOR

Toonsoort: Fis-min Duur: 3:23

Voorspel:

Shantyman begint, koor volgt met refrein.

Refrein: “Blue Nose”, the ocean knows her name,
Sailors know how proud a ship was she,
“Blue Nose”, leaning on the wind,
Racing every wave on the sea,
Racing every wave on the sea,
Oehoe.....

Coupletten:

1. *In the town of Lunenburg
Down Nova Scotia way
In 1921 on a windy day
A sailing ship was born
The “Blue Nose” was her name
You’ll never see her kind again*
2. *Her hull was long and black
Her sails were snowy white
She looked like a young bird in flight
And from the very first
The “Blue Nose” loved the run
She loved the smell of sea and sun*
3. *For twenty-five long years
She ruled the northern sea
Riding like a Queen on the tide
But in the Caribbean, one dark and stormy day
The “Blue Nose” hit the reef and died*
4. *Now just the other day, down Nova Scotia way
In Lunenburg they christened a ship
Just like the old “Blue Nose”,
Down to the very name
“Blue Nose” lives and sails again (koor)*

Refrein:

Na laatste zin: oehoe, oehoe, mmmm..... (langzaam uitlopend en zachter!
